Transition to the Trades

Join SOY for an engaging and informative presentation designed for graduating students, parents, and educators interested in learning more about careers in the skilled trades.

As experts in the apprenticeship and skilled trades sector, the SOY team will break down the apprenticeship pathway, offering clear guidance on how students can successfully transition from high school into a rewarding career. The session will include practical tips, resources, and insights on how to find and connect with potential employers or sponsors.

Whether you're a student considering your options, a parent looking to support your child's future, or an educator helping guide career pathways, this session will provide the tools and information you need.

Please contact events@supportontarioyouth.ca for more information.

DELIVERY OPTIONS:

- Virtual presentation for graduating students, during the day in one of their classes or in an assembly.
- In-person presentation that includes students and their parents, ideally for multiple schools to come together in one location (hosted by a school/school board).

Flexible scheduling available during both daytime and evening hours.
